BLACKS DENOUNCE ARYAN CONVENTION

FRIDAY, July 18, 1986 <
 Section: News, Page: E1

The Pacific Northwest has opened itself up to an invasion by white supremacists because the region's schools and public officials have failed to help build a strong black cultural base, black leaders charged yesterday.

Omari Tahir, spokesman for a group seeking to establish an African American Heritage Museum in the abandoned Colman School, denounced the Aryan Nations convention held at Hayden Lake, Idaho, last weekend.

The group also denounced apartheid and is sponsoring an anti-apartheid march at 5:30 p.m. today to observe the 68th birthday of imprisoned South African black leader Nelson Mandela.

Participants plan to march from the Madison Park home of the South African consul to Colman School at 1515 24th Ave. S.
